Harriett Ball was an elementary school teacher and the pioneer educator who inspired the first KIPP charter school. Ms. Ball was known for setting learning to a rhythm. In fact, the name of the school, Knowledge is Power Program, comes from one of Ms. Ball's chants. Ms. Ball trained the co-founders of KIPP by teaching them her original songs, chants and games that she used to encourage learning among her students.

Ms. Ball was born on July 1, 1946 in Rosenberg, Texas. She taught in Austin, Texas and Houston, Texas for 35 years.
